

Listen To Me

Person Centred Planning Workbook

This book belongs to:

Please don't read it unless you have my permission

Updated in July 2005

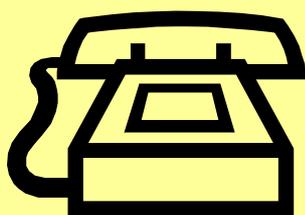

The questions outlined in this book are derived from "Listen to Me", (Michael Smull and Bill Allen) and "Thoughts about my life"(by Karen Manning and Michael Smull)

This is a workbook for you, to help you think about how you want your life to be. You can write about things you like. Your workbook is a way to tell people about what is important to you.

You can put the information in whatever way you want. Some people write, some draw, some stick photos or pictures. Add more paper if you need it.

At the end, you can put the information together to let people know what is important in your life and what help you want. This is a start to what is called an essential lifestyle plan.

You can share the book with people you trust to help you and care about you. Together, you can work to get what is important to you.

1. Who is part of my life?

Who are the people closest and most important to me?

Example: People in your family, friends and neighbours, people at the day centre, work or clubs.

Think about who they are, and then write their names in the circles below. Some people write the names of people who are closest to them in the middle. You may want to use photographs.

What others like and admire about me

What are some great things about me?

What do I like about myself?

What are some nice things people say about me?

What do people thank me for?

Are there things we need to know about the food you eat?

What kind of people do you like to help you?

Getting ready for my meeting

Now that you are happy with your plan, the next step is to make sure that things happen.

One way is to have a meeting with the people who are important to you, to show them your plan, and talk about what you want to happen.

This section is for you to think about how you want your meeting to go.

1. Who I want to come to my meeting
(Look at your circle to help you with this)
2. What day and time best suits me
(Look at your timetables to help you with this)
3. Where I want my meeting
(where do you feel comfortable? What needs to happen for me to feel comfortable and enjoy my meeting?)
4. How I want to be involved in my meeting
(How can my facilitator help me?)
5. How I want to prepare for my meeting

How do we make sure that things happen after the meeting?

ACTION PLAN

Date:
What?	Who?	By When?

Implementing the plan

Questions to answer at the meeting

How can we ensure the plan happens?

How will we know how well we are doing? How will we share and record how we are learning about the person

How will we share the successes and barriers of implementing the plan with others in the service?

What can we do to keep learning/supporting the person to have new opportunities?

Date	Activity	Who was there:	What worked well about the activity? What should continue? What did you learn?	What didn't work? What must be different? What did you learn?
